- 1.(9) About two steps from the cradle the lure of danger begins to tempt the human race -
- 2.(4) Playing with fire never loses its appeal -
- 3.(8) Among the risk-running games of sport, La Crosse is near the top.
Yale vs. Syracuse
- 4.(6) Head, arms or body may stop a swinging stick at any moment @
- 5.(3) The repair crew on the job -
- 6.(3) Concentrated action -
- 7.(6) Cuts and bruises only add to the fun of the risky frolic -
- 8.(9) When it comes to the big thrill of danger, the motor race leads the march.
Altoona Speedway.
- 9.(4) Special construction reduces the risk -
- 10.(5) Speed and possible disaster draw the multitudes -
- 11.(5) At 140 miles an hour something is bound to give way -
- 12.(6) The stands get a thrill, but think of 250 miles at the wheel!
- 13.(4) Sixty thrills a minute for two hours!
- 14.(3) Twenty precious seconds!
- 15.(5) The grim and ancient Reaper is always close at hand -
- 16.(3) Murphy wins.
- 17.(3) A first trip to the Big Town may be full of daring adventure -
- 18.(10) The New York Police Department Bureau of Public Safety is constantly on guard to prevent these risks.
- 19.(3) The quick or the dead!
- 20.(8) No wonder America has such a great crop of pole vaulters, hurdlers, jumpers and sprinters!
- 21.(4) The ancient art of wrestling is no pick tea -
- 22.(6) George Bothner, one of the greatest of all former champions @
- 23.(7) And "Cyclone" Ress, former light heavyweight champion shows the danger holds -
- 24.(8) The "head lock" , made famous by "Strangler" Lewis, is no friend of the human skull -
- 25.(6) Twis and pressure may leave an opponent unconscious -
- 26.(5) The "hammer lock" is a first class arm breaker --

- 27.(5) And the "body scissors" makes no hit with the ribs -
- 28.(6) The "toe hold" is as pleasant as the Spanish Inquisition -
- 29.(3) Surrender or lose a leg -
- 30.(5) The "strangle hold", now barred, writes its own caption -
- 31.(7) Still ordinary wrestling is piker stuff compared to this Florida brand -
- 32.(9) Henry Koppinger, Miami's famous "Alligator Boy", has a quaint way of killing time -
- 33.(3) A nice opening - if you want a job -
- 34.(5) He spends his summer days deep in the Everglades -
- 35.(3) Would you like to swap places?
- 36.(4) Winter brings thrill-seeking tourists to camp -
- 37.(4) Catch weights - and no holds barred -
- 38.(4) The 'gator yearns for just ONE hold!
- 39.(2) Subdued at last -
- 40.(2) Hypnotised!
- 41.(7) After all it's the danger lure that adds to the spice of life -
- 42.(5) The end.
